What the Diamond Chart reveals.

The Diamond is one of the most powerful and beneficial divination tools numerology has to offer.

Whereas other metaphysical tools reflect an individual's personality, his or her character traits, talents, future forecast, and so forth, the Diamond reveals the chain of cause and effect that runs through our lives for the purpose of inspiring growth and offering guidance, both on the physical plane and the spiritual plane. The Diamond could be called the I Ching of numerology, because it reveals the links and interaction between the material body and the spiritual body.

The top part of the Diamond reflects your spiritual body. It is the heaven. The lower part of the Diamond represents your physical body. It is the earth.

The Diamond divides 81 years of your life in 36 time periods, each of which is presented in a 4-corner configuration – a kind of mini-diamond - within the Diamond. In addition, while each of these time periods affects us for 18 years (overlapping in four and a half year segments) the dominating influence of each of these mini-diamonds moves to the foreground for only one year. However, it sometimes repeats itself two or three times, often spaced a few years apart.

A diagram of your personal Diamond based on the letters in your name is included with your report. If you look closely, you will find the letter c next to a number in the top half of your Diamond, which points to your current Challenge. In the lower half you will find the letters r, a, and o, next to three numbers which form an inverted triangle. The numbers within this triangle reflect your Root, Action Key, and Outcome for that period.

Your Challenge, located in the top of the Diamond, is like a divine quest meant to guide you on your spiritual path. The Root, Action Key, and Outcome are of the earth, and outline the process that enables you to satisfy your Challenge.

Your Root reflects the source; it is the catalyst that starts a particular chain of cause and effect. The Action Key tells you how to respond. And the Outcome shows the probable result.

Lost for many generations, the Diamond's revival over the last 20 years is a result of the research and contemplations of Hans Decoz.

YOUR CHALLENGE

The Challenges are like Divine Quests, and are found in the top half of the Diamond.

The top half of the Diamond reflects our spiritual evolution, while the lower half, which is where we find the Root, Action Key, and Outcome, tells us of our worldly existence and experiences. Therefore, the Challenges reveal the true purpose of our struggles from a celestial viewpoint. The Root, Action Key, and Outcome, reflect the trial, response, and outcome on the material plane, a chain of cause and effect which exists for the sole purpose of delivering the perspective needed to satisfy our Divine Quest.

Within the context of reincarnation, the concept is that what we take with us when we leave our human body are certain qualities we earned or enhanced as a result of the life, or lives, we lived on this earth.

Our Challenges are inspirations of a divine source that seduce us into learning and growing on a level above and beyond our worldly mind. And as is befitting Divine Quests, the Challenges tend to be somewhat veiled and subtle.

Oprah, your Challenge is 6.

This challenge is about love, loyalty and sacrifice, Oprah. Almost every one of your relationships will be tested. Some will survive; others will fall by the wayside.

However, it is not the love and loyalty of the people you are close to, that is being tested, but vice versa.

How real is your love, Oprah? Are you a fair weather friend, or are you more than that?

During the time that this challenge is in place, many of the people close to you will have the opportunity to find out. But in the end, all that matters is that you find out for your self.

YOUR ROOT

The Root is the catalyst that sets a chain of events in motion. Based on the concept that we are here on this earth in order to learn and grow, the Root exposes weaknesses or challenges which need to be dealt with. Once we acknowledge the Root we get the opportunity to respond, thereby starting on a path of healing and growing.

Oprah, your Root is 7.

Oprah, your search for spiritual understanding moves to the foreground. Much of this is only marginally conscious. If asked, you may well rebuff this. You don't per se go to church more than usual. On the contrary, it is very possible that you go to church less, or not at all. You have recognized one of the most important lessons a person can learn during this lifetime; that the quest is within you and so is the answer you are seeking. You have changed. How much of this transformation happened consciously is difficult to say.

To use an analogy: You are no longer standing with your back at the sun staring at your own shadow. You are in the process of turning around to look towards the sun. Oprah, what is interesting is that this particular quest does not require much of you. Just don't fight it. Don't become cynical. Don't let sarcasm become your shield against the unknown.

YOUR ACTION KEY

The Action Key represents the guidance we are offered to help us on our path towards mental, emotional, and spiritual growth.

Oprah, your Action Key is 1.

Oprah, it is time to take charge of your own life; to be more focused and wash away the residue left behind as a result of some experiences in your childhood and your teenage years. You are carrying too much baggage.

It is time to look for other avenues; explore other options. Trust your judgment. And don't be afraid to be called opinionated. You need to define your goals without the pressure of too many peripheral influences. You need to cut some ties. If you take a moment to contemplate this, you will undoubtedly be able to identify the relationships, the memories, and the conditions that are holding you back.

The key ingredients needed to get past your Root for this period are confidence, focus, and ambition.

YOUR OUTCOME

The Root sets us on a path. The Action Key guides us along that path. And the Outcome indicates what it is we find at the end of this path.

Oprah, your Outcome is 8.

Oprah, of all possible Outcomes, this is the one that is most obviously recognizable as either very positive or very negative. There is no middle ground.

The positive result is more common and shows up in the form of considerable career advancement, more authority and responsibility, and improved finances. There is visible and often surprisingly strong growth across the board; success, respect, and money.

The negative result is, of course, the exact opposite. A stagnated if not diminished career, and financial difficulties.
